Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, April 21, 1999 – 10:00 a.m.

When will you manage to eradicate doubt from yourself? You complicate things for us by reacting like this.

Yes, we are satisfied with you, but you should broaden your understanding. We should be able to address more advanced issues.

Some minds will surely be able to understand what we are saying...

It is you, your unconscious, that is a hindrance; you do not realize it.

Make some more effort and the way will be more open.

It is only the fear of other people's reaction that blocks you.

Be confident, the channel is good.
