Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, September 7, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

You have our love, and you know it. We return it to you a hundredfold, since ours is of a divine nature and it opens doors to you that you did not imagine you could go through. We already told you, love is the unique key that leads to the most secret places. The simple fact of loving, without expecting anything from others, touches us infinitely. Our candidates are continually in a requesting mood in terms of reaching such and such a level, without truly targeting their personal investment, and estimating that they are quite within their right since they are engaged in our way. They would like to advance, and quickly, considering their merits lie above all. We are here in a special field where progress has its own precise rules, centred on the divine laws. Competences are not assessed according to men's laws, or the interpretation of facts. It would be presumptuous for our associates to judge their own merits. They should not be worried about knowing where they are. They should simply be persevering and the result will come naturally, because it will be straightforward. Grace operates on a different level, outside all human reasoning and anything deemed right or deserved in the eyes of men. God alone, in His infinite greatness, knows the heart of His children."
