Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, September 8, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

We illuminate your life, so you say. And you, by your love that has never failed with the passing of years, you make our heart happy. All such demonstrations coming from mankind support our action. This Earth is prey to black forces prevailing among men, sustaining all kinds of evils and maintaining them through vice and ensuing degradation – all at a deplorable level. Anything good emanating from man's heart is comforting for us who work for his liberation. It is not about judging, but it is only a sad observation: humanity is going through a relatively low phase of evolution. God is great; we do not despair of a radical transformation arriving in the future, which would make it possible to upgrade it to another vibratory level.

"Let us work together towards this prospect; the task is tough, but not hopeless. Many souls are opening to the divine life, dazzled by its splendour. Each one of them then leans with compassion towards those that are not at this stage in their evolution. By calling from the bottom of his heart for God's mercy, the mystic contributes to attracting His grace on this suffering humanity."
