Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Make sure that meditation becomes the most important meeting point in your day. You should spare yourself a little time for that, and come to this rendezvous with a beseeching heart, considering it as an absolute necessity and joy. Your perseverance will bear fruit and this ritual will transform your life, because this asset cannot be taken away from you.

"Nothing is stable here below. All changes; all is transformed and evolves. Your spiritual life can only enrich you. It will not disappoint you, contrary to human attachments, which are fickle and cannot interfere in this matter. Here you are on another ground; it is stable. The love, which you invest in this process, cannot disappoint you nor be taken away from you. Make sure you reserve your best to satisfy the aspiration of your soul; it is immortal and follows its trajectory. The joys that you derive are unadulterated and will follow you beyond this life, which is fleeting, as you know. Who can know where they will be tomorrow? You should know how to build a sure future for yourself, not subjected to the vagaries of this world. We insist on this point, which is essential in your process. Life on Earth is short; you have no time to waste. Think of it and act accordingly."
