Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, September 29, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

We deposit treasures in your heart which you may wish to discover. Your perseverance in continuing makes you own them. Your heart calls us intensely; how could we neglect it? Its ardour in loving stimulates it in its search; only half-heartedness could slow it down. Once this stage is reached, it is normal for an acceleration to occur, and for the call to become increasingly stronger. With passing time, the soul has emerged from its cesspool; light attracts it more and more each day. It only aspires to one thing: fusion with the Ultimate. This notion is irresistible, pressing. All its efforts bring it towards this convergence point. The goal to be reached is the supreme process; nothing can divert it from its objective. Thus is the process of a soul that catches a glimpse of the divinity in all its splendour. You are in such a situation, my daughter; it is up to you to do the needful. We bless you as well as all of you who are working towards this prospect.'
