Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, October 15, 2002 - 8:00 a.m.

Yes, we know what you would like; the moment has not yet come for you to leave this world. You still have to be a little patient. Don't we have a beautiful relationship? Are you deprived of my presence and that of your Master in your heart? It seems not. Don't forget that the reading of these messages will make many people envy you; how could they exist without your gifts and especially without this love that binds us! You have this natural inclination to love, which you direct to our hearts. Make sure you don't change; all is well, my child. The worst thing that may happen to a human being is to have a dry heart, devoid of any feelings and aspirations to uniting with the Divine. The divine love gives life its true meaning; it is immutable and sure. It accompanies the soul in its process, and this harmony is highly beneficial. Maintain this heart vibrant with love; we can only appreciate its condition. Do your level best in all the acts of your life. On some level, it is not easy; therefore take refuge in your sanctuary and try to forget it when it weighs too much on you. There is no other recourse; it is great luck to have this one. Many human beings do not have it and sink into unspeakable despair."
