Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, October 19, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The appreciation of some privileged people, who have access to these messages, must encourage you to proceed in this way. Why would we give you these messages if they were not meant to help our brothers and sisters, aspirants, to rise spiritually by following our method and our teachings? You can believe it; these writings will be highly appreciated by the hearts sufficiently open to the richness that they conceal. You cannot realise their scope; beyond the words and the effect of their reading, a true thorough work is carried out in the mysteries of the heart, which opens to the promising effects of grace that it distils.

"This work is not done in vain, my child; it will be recognised and valued for its true worth, especially in future times when the level of consciousness will have risen considerably. Sahaj Marg is at the dawn of its existence; it is currently preparing the ground, if we may say so, for the new era that is in the offing, in terms of a high scale spiritual openness. Happy are the precursors of the system; pioneers are always courageous, since their views are limited to the time during which they act. Their confidence is commendable; they were not co-opted in vain, their valiant efforts will be rewarded. Blessed are the pure hearts that are working in a state of surrender to the Master and to what he represents; they will not regret it."
