Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, October 21, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Don't languish like that; you must carry on, on your road. Therefore accept your condition; you cannot escape from it. Elsewhere too, you will have obligations and you will have to face up to them. You must take refuge more and more in these heart-to-heart contacts that are a very special grace, and with which you must be satisfied. Don't maintain this nostalgia in you; here and now must suffice for you, since you thus accomplish your mission. Isn't what you wish, above all, is to serve us? Therefore, you should be happy to be able to do so, and regard your life as being achieved through your doing so on a daily basis, with all your heart. We do not expect of you any feats beyond your capabilities; you act according to your gifts. Courage and perseverance are added to you to go on until the end of this long epic. None of our aspirants, who engage in serving the Mission, are asked the impossible. They are all doing what they can, and for many of them, it is about a true apostolate, regarding this action as a personal enlightenment and an achievement. Here, being in the service of one's brothers, abhyasis, means acting for one's Master and honouring God for being granted the capacity to do it, while fulfilling oneself. The Mission is being built with the help of all people of goodwill who work continuously with this aim. It is a vast undertaking which is extending in the world; it is dedicated to wise men, who decide to take in hand their own destiny by rising spiritually."
