Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, October 23, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You know the refuge, my dear daughter, when life becomes heavy with concerns that keep piling up; there is this recourse which is not the least, since it makes it possible to soar above all these hassles. Do not let yourself be affected. There is a solution to each problem; remain confident. Faith is the strength of a human being. Surrender and confidence are the driving forces of life; without them, it would be meaningless. Love ennobles everything; it accompanies the soul towards its higher destiny. Without this dimension, man is poor and destitute, as is still the case for many of them deliberately forsaking this aspect of their existence for the material side. Do you realise your luck? You know that this incarnation is transitory, that it serves your evolution by allowing you to advance in knowledge, and the work you are doing on yourself. All humans don't have this open-mindedness and turn hopelessly in all directions without seeing another way for their life, excepting emptiness. Do you see yourself in this situation? What would be your attitude while going through the tests you are faced with? When all hearts are opened to the truth, the world will become idyllic. Vice in every form will be on the decline; a collective soul will emerge from the current cesspool and will shower its light on humanity. This dreamed picture is not utopian; one day it will become a reality, after the dissipation of all the thick fogs covering the world. God is great; nothing is impossible for him."
