Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, October 24, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

We appreciate all your efforts in serving us as well as possible. They pay off, you can believe it; this teaching will be able to satisfy many hearts in need. The hardness of times, and the even worse hardness that will strike future man, will lead him to seek inside himself a reason to exist and to fight until the end of his life. A collective awareness will occur on the true meaning of life here below and its purpose. Facts that currently cannot be easily imagined will urge him to go in this direction. Our way will answer the aspirations of many men and women, eager for a means of knowing their true nature and advancing in this discovery. A mysterious impulse will lift up the hearts that will feel a need to engage in a way of evolution and to undertake the necessary work. Humanity will feel a thirst for spirituality; that which does not seem possible today will occur tomorrow. Since time immemorial, many other feats have been achieved and have benefited Earthmen. Even if a huge amount of work remains to be done to bring it to the highest level, progress made will allow it, one day, to quicken the pace. A faint light is dawning on the horizon; one day, it will become a pure sun flooding the Earth with its beneficial rays."
