Saturday, April 24, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

Get out of your worries, rise up, and come to join us. See how it's all beautiful. Rest for one moment by my side. You must remain an example of courage and faith. Do not be affected by the fact that you are misunderstood, that does not matter. We, we do cherish you; you should hold firm, my child.

"You are our preferred scribe, you know it. I hope you have no doubt about it. You are really a case: so many gifts and yet so little self-assurance, you intrigue us.

"That is part and parcel of your personality, and we will not change it. Resume the processing of these messages; do not delay things too much. We appreciate the goodwill of all the team as concerns the work done. Convey my thanks and blessings to them.

"'If you do not become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.'(Gospel, Matthew 18:3)

"You should revert to the simplicity of childhood, the impulses of the heart. Do not fear to express your love, in whatever form possible. Drop your middle-class education criteria: this intellectualism which limits you constantly and hinders your progress."

Babuji