Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, October 30, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My son is the herald of this wonderful history of modern times. His powerful voice is heard in the world, announcing the good news: a different spiritual way is opening up to men who actually wish to follow it. His arguments are convincing to them; they understand the interest in doing some exercises that will open to them doors that so far have remained closed. They are thirsty for something else; they feel that something can open up for them on a quite different plane which they have been eager – consciously or not – to explore for a very long time. The time has come, for the multitude to get out of its lethargy, and to seek to draw open the veils on knowledge. This century should end with a radical transformation of people's minds emerging from the darkness of ignorance. Everything is being put in place for humanity to progress. It takes very long for change to be effective. Time does not count at the universal level where events are not assessed with the same criteria of evaluation. Forces are already in motion to transform the world. Many souls are opening up to the divine reality. They are disconcerted, lacking bases or solid anchors to give shape to this profound eagerness to seek God. A fervent thirst for Him always ends up being quenched. May our way belong to the possible options of many of them!"

Babuji