Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, October 31, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You can note once again, that the flame burning in you attracts hearts ready to open up to a true initiatory process. Thus will be established on the Earth the reign of a spirituality divested of useless attributes, which do not express the reality of the matter. It is time that the world opens up to reality, and that a real perception of God is no longer reserved for only some privileged people. True knowledge does not burden itself with useless dogmas; it gets to the heart of the matter, i.e., the divinity incorporated in each being, in the secrecy of the mystical heart residing in him. This inner treasure is to be discovered; there is the true goal of an incarnation. When the aspirant has found the means that he deems the best, it remains for him to work accordingly. Our way is one of the means offered to today's man. It is adjusted to a period that is seeking its way, and knowledge suited to the spirit of the moment, in search of truth, and especially of God, whom one does not seek to hide away under false concepts. Man of this century will no longer content himself with a vague approximation, but he will want knowledge that will correspond completely to his deeper feelings. Thus will he be able to emerge from darkness towards the light which attracts him."
