Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Saturday, November 2, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Endure, my child. You will not remain eternally on Earth. You must finish what you have come for by accomplishing it as best you can. Your heart, touched by grace, is the tool of the Divine; see only this aspect of yourself, it is glorious.

"Place yourself beyond the monotony of the days, in this closed universe where you are spending your life offered to service. Was serving not your dearest wish? Be strong, summon up your energies and try to face up to things. Don't anticipate problems; it is enough to resolve them as they arise. Remain confident; your life has not been easy, but you have been followed and helped, particularly in the most painful moments. Your perseverance allows us to carry out this daily exercise, which, according to the circumstances, leads us to addressing such and such a subject. Thanks to this means, we can transmit a teaching of a particular kind. Nothing is simple in this world; it all fluctuates constantly, except for the spiritual values that are immutable and sure; the next minute can destroy everything. Man is determined to build, to create, and it is well, but he must know that he is advancing in utmost illusion.

"He should act while raising his eyes towards the eternal force which governs life and he should never neglect the essential aspect, the all-powerful driving force of the universe, of which, he, in his smallness, is only a negligible part, animated by a higher will."
