Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, November 4, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

When will you understand that your heart needs, more and more, these moments of intense communion with the Divine? There lies your true life, that which takes shape each day with more precision. Be listening and more receptive than you are. You have reached a stage in your life where you advance in detachment, leaving aside today that which yesterday was still among your practices. Let your spiritual life take complete precedence [over everything]; don't offer resistance to its quasi-permanent manifestations any more. Isn't it the true attraction of your current existence? Therefore go completely into this direction, without repressing this inclination. My dear daughter, don't fear anything; let yourself be carried by this wave. It can only give you joy and strength. Lead your life at the material level; this does not preclude the other one. Be true to nature in every respect, but with another productive life inside you, characterised by its highly spiritualised states. These two facets of your personality are not conflicting at all; your mystical life belongs to you, it develops in secrecy. Only your Master and your guides monitor its evolution. Devote all necessary attention to it; you have reached a turning point where you cannot neglect it any more. It is up to you to see."
