Whispers from The Brighter World

A Third Revelation

Monday, November 11, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

You belong now to another system, my child. Henceforth, everything you express is defined by a special code, which you must conform to and not depart from. You have shown your ability hitherto, and we know that you will continue to follow this way of love and surrender which you are in. You have shown us enough of your steadfastness and your goodwill for us to trust you. The human being is sometimes so disappointing, changeable, unstable, switching from fervour to indifference when a humanly attractive event arises in his life. His ego, also, can drive him to having unfortunate behaviours, not only for him but also for his fellow men, when he is set to play a minor role in a group, as we often notice. Faith must be firmly anchored in the heart of the aspirant, who relies completely on his Master to be led on a way conducive to his evolution. Humility is the best attitude, capable of sparing him any faux pas. By being well aware of his smallness, he is not likely to believe he is superior to his brothers. Humility is the strength of the great. They know that they are nothing else but animated projections of a perpetual movement, driving the wheel of universal life in its immensity."
