Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, November 12, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Since its beginning, humanity has been fighting and suffering. That is the way it goes. This status will not change so soon; a lot of tears and cries will continue to punctuate the succession of days and nights, without significantly modifying the state of mind that prevails here below. A radical transformation will have to take place under the influence of the higher forces, so that everything can really change for the rest of the universal balance. Men don't want to hear anything; they are dangerous in their thirst for power and economic domination. The warlike mindset is always rooted in man; it remains in a latent state in him and he finds every good reason to exercise it. The spiritual vocation is lacking, but it will manage to conquer the great majority of hearts and transform them when the moment comes. Time is our best ally; it allows the karma of the Earth to be exercised, until the end of its long learning process of the cosmic laws that govern it and which are continually scorned. May the time of enlightenment come soon – the time of purity and love among men, making them attentive to the divine presence in themselves and the requirements it implies. Be blessed in your long but fruitful search."
