Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, November 13, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The most advanced human being, the most open-minded, can penetrate into only a negligible part of the mystery that surrounds him, of his own reality and the vaster one related to the whole creation. We try in small amounts to introduce you to this reality which only crosses your mind. Part of you, of the being in his entirety, is at a stage on the Earth where he is supposed to evolve in a constructive way, thus contributing to his achievement. The core of your real personality resides in other levels of consciousness, with which you are in osmosis. Your dreams are only snatches of elements that remain on your mind, snatches of peregrinations made during your sleep in these spaces that you don't know consciously. We cannot go further on pain of disconcerting you. It would be necessary to say so many other things, but our remarks would be considered as delirious and inappropriate with respect to our current teaching. If it were more esoteric, it would target initiates having already a sound knowledge of the matter, and who go very far in their exploration of these characteristics relating to human and spiritual nature. We prefer for the moment, to remain in a more general context, accessible to all. To practise assiduously in compliance with our advice, given profusely in these series, clears the way to knowledge, and there, everything gets clearer to the seeker; he can switch to other fields of exploration, in his spiritual search."
