Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, November 21, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, you know that it does not matter if the beings that are dear to you live far from you. Heart bonds are not affected by distances, be it those existing on the Earth or between the worlds; it is all relative. Whether they are incarnate or not, the souls remain united when their bonds are truly sincere and profound. Love vowed to a divine being takes a special place in one?s life; it gives it a rare dimension. It does not exist in vain; loving in this way elevates the soul and places it on a favourable level; by offering itself, it is freed and it grows. By loving God, and the great beings He chooses to represent Him, you take the best way to unite with Him. Unlike human love, which often changes and disappoints, this kind of love is not derisory. Here, all is different, we are in another context; there is nothing comparable.

"How can one manage to love God, above all? And to love one's Master, the guide he has chosen for us? There is the mystery that humans cannot penetrate. That is the way it goes; when man finally reaches a level of consciousness that places him in this situation, he loves, he acts accordingly and does not ask himself superfluous questions. There is no need to reason. That is not necessary, since this love escapes all the rules relating to it; loving is enough for him. He gives a profound meaning to his life and transforms it; without it, he would feel terribly helpless."

Babuji