Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, November 25, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Pull yourself together, my daughter; it is not like you to lose heart. You have always managed to face up to things in all circumstances. What else can we do to help you? Seek a refuge in your spiritual life, which is fruitful; it should be able to compensate for the emptiness which you feel in the course of the days. Many human beings, at some point in their Earthly existence, feel a profound gap around them, which cannot be filled by daily movements alone. Try to overcome this great lassitude, for the love of us. Do your best to change your way of seeing things and to find interest, and especially joy, in the conduct of the most trivial matters. You are not inactive, and moreover, you manage to receive us, which is not an easy task and not accessible to all. We understand that you are not satisfied with this lifestyle, but many would put up with it. We do not force anybody to serve us, you know it; it is the choice of the interested person that counts. We know your heart; we know that this activity is a vocation for you and that you perform it with all your heart. This fallow period will not last; your dynamism will get the upper hand, we do sincerely hope so.

"You have all our blessings."
