Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, November 26, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

This son-in-heart has found the right words to re-motivate you; we thank him and his soul mate, for the interest they take in these messages. You don't have enough hindsight to judge what they represent. People's minds are opening out, imperceptibly; many of them will take them as reference in the future. Thus a kind of dialogue between the aspirant and us will possibly be established, each day, as these messages are addressed to all without exception, since they will manage to read them by leaving aside critical mind and intellectual pretensions – which are to be dissociated from a true spiritual process. Knowledge entails the simplicity of the heart; it is not always easy to open this door when the intellect lays down the law. Complicated formulas are illusory on this ground; they do not foster the expansion of the soul and its openness to reality. Remember these words of a great spiritual Master of the past, who suggested to his disciples to revert to the heart of a child. Thus, they became more receptive to his teaching both pared-down and rich, where very simple formulas were and still are capable of touching men's hearts. Become simple again, if such is not the case. There is no better advice to engage with lucidity in a process which cannot burden itself any more with superfluity, which clutters the mind unnecessarily."
