Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

To answer your prayer, we invested your heart for a long time. How could it be otherwise? Our relationship can be based only on total confidence and complete surrender. We have been moving together for a long time, and you are more and more receptive and open to our wishes, which facilitates the work. We can work only on ground conquered by love, but on no account by force. Our story fits in a special area; each human being has his own, which develops with the passage of time and successive incarnations, here or there. When the heart manages to love truly, it comes closer to the divine source, where it comes and quenches its thirst with delight. From that moment, the way becomes clearer for it; everything seems easier to it. It valiantly puts up with the obstacles arising on its road, and which it cannot get round. This is how an elite soul is shaped – nothing puts it off since faith and love carry it at every moment. For a wise man, each test is a blessing; seen from that angle, it opens to him the doors of the sacred edifice that awaits him. The human being is of a great complexity; he does not know himself truly, only the approach to the Divine lets him foresee a truth that he is eager to discover. Time and perseverance will play in his favour."
