Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, December 4, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, years go by and your faithfulness lives on. Our contacts have resulted in a good crop of messages. Each day, they feed you, as they also do to the privileged people around you who have access to them. One day, they will be known more widely, and they will become, for many people, an enlightening reading routine. We don't make you fill out these pages for them to remain indefinitely unknown. They will be a spiritual food valued by many hearts in need. Our Mission is making its way in the world, just like a beneficial brook – as yet relatively unknown, but which will keep imbibing the souls that are ready for that. Nothing is worth the simplicity of this field; only it can quench a true thirst for the Divine. Associated with effectiveness, it gives the best results. The effectiveness of this reading is not immediately obvious; it makes its way in the hearts and helps them to become aware of the results of our method, which are not easily measurable. How could the aspirant do it objectively, unaided? We are here in a special field and the hectic life led by the majority of them, does not foster a spiritual process in the absence of real motivation. Our abhyasis, in their majority, are moving ahead. They have come to us, driven by this thirst for the Divine which manifests itself in them and which we endeavour to satisfy according to their perseverance in practising."
