Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Friday, December 6, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The journey on the Earth is so short; can't you endure it for the love of us? It is a rare opportunity granted to you to progress towards your spiritual ideal. Give thanks constantly for having been granted it, and for being able to live a special situation, very enlightening for you. The hearts you help – by showing them the way – follow you and benefit from your assets. Thus are redistributed the graces received. As they are purified, your subtle bodies find the ways suitable to them more easily. This incarnation is very beneficial to you; you can already take stock of it and assess the positive side of it. See only this one, and put emphasis on the strong points that remain to be reinforced. It is possible to improve until the end of a lifetime; by so doing, the way becomes wider and brighter. Sustained grace attracts grace; this movement becomes permanent when the heart lends itself with love to this divine game. Foster it, my child, with all your soul. Keep this objective alive in your mind; let it be the thread guiding your life. Go into more and more surrender to the divine guidance; it is the key to success in this field. Cultivate love in yourself the way you are doing; do not fear to express it, since the divine love cannot disappoint you. It is meant to be given and received; it is about a sublime exchange. It quickly becomes the true driving force of life – transcended by this divine light which consumes the soul, while building it an exciting eternal life."
