Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Saturday, December 7, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

We have reached our goal: your two hearts are united indefectibly. The power of his spirit takes yours along, in an endless round. You are our children, who have very much moved our hearts and filled them with joy. You have the same ardour and you express your faith together, forcefully. The divine engine drives you in its wake, which sublimates your love. True love gives a profound joy, indescribable by someone who does not experience it, and yet, it is useful to show it with fervour; it ends up impacting hearts that are ready to hear. The words are not futile, for the occasion; your hearts must continue in this direction. They get stronger in loving so much; the divine love is of a sublime essence. To love a son of God is, above all, to love God himself; thus is the rule respected. Every effort is being made with this aim. His power materialises into Chosen beings, to make His voice heard by men – not very attentive to His laws. It will take time for mankind to become divinised; it is making progress slowly through the ages, and is longing for that. It must be refined and divest itself of its coarse carapace, which still keeps it stuck in the mud. All this can seem strange; we cannot go into further details. Here, we all work towards the liberation of souls entangled in this magma. May the divine grace free humanity from these nets in which it is held captive."
