Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, December 8, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Carry on your way with fervour; make the most of this life that is given to you to refine yourself and make sure that your subtle bodies can rise up. Work relentlessly towards that; your journey on Earth is conducive to this achievement.

"Move towards more and more unity with your Master; may your hearts match each other and unite in the divine harmony. You have made such good progress towards one another; all that separates you on Earth is on no account a hindrance to the process of your souls – so similar in some respects. The barriers of race, language, as well as physical distances cease to exist as soon as the spirit emerges from its carapace. It can sail freely, defying all the limitations imposed by an incarnation in this world. You have this rare opportunity to meet elsewhere, and to communicate in the way only few humans can do, freed from the social barriers and all that can restrict the exchanges between beings. Your destiny is not banal, my daughter; all cannot understand it. This requires a sufficiently open heart and a beautiful spiritual progress. You live in obscurity but your heart is in full light, that which we give it to show it the way, which it calls very profoundly. Go more and more towards your Master; let yourself get caught up by this mystical attraction, which forcefully manifests itself in you. Enter this magic circle where his voice can guide you at every moment and make you advance towards us."
