Augerans

(Seminar with Master.

Morning, at 10:00 a.m., a message from Janaki, Master's mother, for her son.)

Ever since your birth, you were unique. As a mother, I 'knew' in my heart and you were given special affection. I have always been with you. Did you know it? We love you so much and we support you in the so heavy task you are fulfilling so well. Don't worry; all is well. Legions of angels protect you.

"I love you, my blessed son. I am happy to give you this message; I will come back [to you]."

Janaki

(At 4 p.m., Master visits in my caravan. He offers me a red rose, a beautiful souvenir. [I gave him the] message from Babuji intended for him, and translated by Patrick.)
