Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, December 11, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Make sure that your heart becomes an unlimited space, completely available and accommodating the divinity, in purest joy. This objective is essential for you; you chose it deliberately, and it makes your life take on its full meaning. Each one of our aspirants is proceeding, they too, according to their deep convictions and at their own pace. We help them all, according to their personal request; the work being done by itself, shall we say, since the answer results from the call of the soul. We cannot force a heart; it must develop and be strengthened by an assiduous practice, thus benefiting from the divine energy that is transmitted to him. This purifying breath makes him grow and open up to reality. Love develops in him, little by little, as a logical result of this work, which opens new horizons to him. This process will follow him until the end of his life on the Earth. Perseverance, as a primary quality for the circumstance, will enable him to make good progress. He was ready, in this incarnation, to take the plunge and access a true process likely to make him move forward. Each one is geared towards what is suitable for him, and according to his progress. The process is long; evolution takes place slowly. Our way constitutes an important turning point in this process which benefits many souls, which in turn take along with them other souls seeking a favourable way out that will answer the call of the Divine."
