Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, December 12, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, try to turn around and look far back, time wise. Don't you feel more at ease in your heart than in the past? Has it not been embellished? You plunge into it so often with delight; would you do so if such were not the case? It is good, for the occasion, to dwell on these reflections. Also look around you at this world in madness; you are protected from it to some extent, the fact remains that it is worrying. Man will pay dearly for his many mistakes, and his stubbornness in pursuing this escalation of excesses. The many cries of alarm are not heard; cupidity is at its peak, and wise people are not listened to. Severe reprimands will be required to make humanity see reason again. You cannot do anything else but keep this flame burning, as a sign of the intense love distilled by your heart. It takes a lot of these points of light, and there are many of them, to light here and there the darkness of this world. Men will actually need to calm down and revert to a less frantic life, more constructive in terms of what is essential. We are in utmost compassion for this humanity suffering to an extent of which you have no idea, you, who are protected in your way of life, and moreover, carried by faith and your spiritual blooming. This civilisation is being destroyed slowly but effectively. A great shock is inevitable. When will it occur? We cannot say anything about it. When the time comes, the phenomenon will break out by itself with all its might. May it please God that humanity gets out of it with increased stature."
