Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Thursday, December 19, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Let this music grow more and more in you, it will be enough for you and it will fill your soul with joy. This detachment should not worry you; it is normal in your situation. Your heart delights permanently in the fragrances which remain after we have gone. It is accustomed to this quality of vibrations, which you cannot find elsewhere. Your way of receiving us also changes; your perceptions are refined, as a result of the spiritual work being carried out in you. With time, our aspirants also note changes in their way of seeing and assessing what surrounds them. Their perseverance in practising transforms them imperceptibly, developing in them a more acute receptiveness to the vibratory phenomena in which they move. They are subjected to a true mutation – the goal of any spiritual process. Trying to discover this divine life residing in man's heart always results in the human personality being modified with time. Another world unfolds before the seeker; it remains for him to explore it with healthy and increasing curiosity, and discover unexpected aspects that stimulate him in his search. He will find many more surprises if he really takes the trouble to seek. It all depends on one's perseverance and motivation for reaching the goal. We cannot do everything for him; he must take responsibility for himself and focus his action on this noble conquest, the highest and most beautiful which man can undertake."
