Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Monday, December 23, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

Don't lose heart, my daughter; as long as a spark of life manifests itself in you, it will be blessed. Wherever you are, the soul is universal, going through various bodies or states specific to its evolution. Each one of them must be respected since it is redeeming when it is well utilised. You should see only the good sides of your life here below. There are many of them. We understand the nostalgia that overwhelms you at this year's end. We see it in many hearts that let themselves be won over by this riot of preparations, leading to the usual excesses in your countries. May this period marking the apex of nature's sleep be, in the hearts, the preparation for the revival of a true rebirth towards the light that calls them. Each year sets a milestone in this regard. The assessment of past months can lead to considering another plan of life, more oriented towards spirituality through a suitable process.

"Does the past year show weaknesses? It is always time to remedy it; the main thing is to advance with the determination to do better for one's own evolution. Nobody should be held responsible for one's possible failures. The individual himself is able to do what is required. Only he accesses the unique riches worth accessing, secretly kept in his heart. He can manage it as he pleases, in utmost confidentiality."
