Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Wednesday, December 25, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, let's allow the usual automatisms to be in operation and let's meet again in the light and lightness of the moment. Let your heart permit itself to be carried, as it is no longer its own; it glides euphoric and joyful – a profound joy which only the divine love can provide. Let's forget all the rest in this moment when an unusual and pervading calm fosters our contact. Let's see only the beautiful, the multitude of souls that are being refined, approaching their God. They are many who rise towards Him, in ethereal splendour. Your representation of the heavens, of the beyond, is somewhat distorted by the images maintained by religions; but it is good for you to dream about mythical and beautiful places. When the inner being listens to the soul, the latter strongly expresses its need to return to the divine source.

"We propose to our associates a means capable of satisfying them. It is effective, although long and demanding; it cannot be otherwise. They know the rules, and we will not repeat them. Repetition is ever present in daily life; neither does the spiritual life escape this law and they [our associates] must abide by it. The inward cultivation of beauty, love, compassion and tolerance establishes itself naturally.

"It is a climate that the soul delights in, ignoring the ugliness of the world where it manifests itself more than is sensible. May you all be blessed and fervent in your spiritual practice; it is the divine key which clears your way to the Celestial Fields."
