Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Sunday, December 29, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

The blooming of the soul makes one humble; when the heart is jubilant with joy and gratitude towards its Creator, how could it be otherwise? Man's superiority as considered on Earth does not mean anything. Divine measurements are very different. The beauty of a soul lies beyond human appreciation. This area is reserved and secret; love creates beauty therein. Love is the vital force, the rare energy. Although it is not perceived like this here below, it animates the worlds and maintains them in their integrity. It builds, and does not destroy on any account. Few hearts really understand it and recognise it for what it is. Tomorrow's world, if it wants to remain and thrive, will have to re-examine all its philosophy of life and imperatively align itself with the divine laws, and not disregard them as he currently does.

"This planet is at a turning point in its history. It went through others that completely destroyed it; the facts are unknown to men, who believe they are so erudite. Only love will be able to save the world – we repeat it loud and clear. This concept should be engraved in our Mission, and our brothers should consider it of paramount importance. They are not lone elements advancing for their own benefit exclusively, they belong to a whole, which they cannot dissociate themselves from. Spiritual life is one, and each one belongs to the large heavenly and divine body. Man has yet much to do to understand this reality."
