Whispers from The Brighter World
A Third Revelation

Tuesday, December 31, 2002 - 10:00 a.m.

My daughter, see your life as an opportunity for serving, of surpassing yourself and growing spiritually. This stay on Earth represents an additional page to the great book of time. Choosing to complete it properly, by recording therein victories over oneself, open-mindedness towards others, as well as unrelenting research of the Divine, provides joys that outlive strokes of fate. Nothing that life can offer is pointless. Let your heart fly over the storm and keep its unalterable peace; it actually deserves this distinguished favour. The satisfaction of doing one's duty generates peace of mind. The frail skiff of life can face the tumultuous flood, when it is guided by love. Keep hope for better days, when all that which your heart has managed to acquire throughout its Earthly existence will be able to be expressed. Be diligent in your practice; do not neglect this precious asset, which remains the best protection against disappointments that occur inevitably in the course of the days. Let it strengthen you and always open your eyes on the sadness of this world, its poverty on all levels and the work that remains to be done to make it better. Let the love, which you are capable of, be invested in this divine plan where all efforts are necessary. At the dawn of this new year, make sure you take stock, with wisdom, of the way you want to lead the rest of your life. Until the end, choices are possible. We bless you, as well as your brothers and sisters who are also concerned with these comments."
