Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, January 2, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Create harmony inside yourself and around you, attract searching hearts and help them in their search. Redistribute generously that which we give you; your soul gets stronger in so doing. Sharing at this level is a grace which falls to the hearts concerned. Divine love is the unifying element of the souls who are surrendered to it. This call becomes strong, it cannot be resisted, and it raises consciousness up to the banks of bliss. You should withdraw as often as possible into this haven of peace and enjoy your fill of the sublime energy in which your heart can let go, in this boundless space.

"Let love grow in you, you are no longer your own. Let it carry you like a powerful wave which cannot be resisted. Hearts that are dear to you will follow you, caught up in this endless movement. Loving to this extent is delightful; the rest becomes secondary as regards everyday life. You should face up to it as well as possible, but only to the extent necessary without being affected by what is not worth it. Whoever becomes well aware of the precariousness of life is not affected so much by events. Man cannot escape the inevitable; faith is his only refuge and gives him strength in the face of life. Love grows together with faith; it surrounds the heart that surrenders to it with an aura of light.

"May our way contribute to its growth on the Earth, in view of the preparation of the new era for men of goodwill."
