Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Our way must advance in love, which is yet an abstract notion for most Earthmen since it is understood from the perspective of human relationships. Future times will allow humanity to open up to this divine reality.

"We insist on this fact and will keep doing so until the end. Love is the most important point in any search; one cannot advance towards God unless equipped with this asset. A heart locked up in principles and narrow-mindedness, where there is no room for this energy, is poor and on the wrong footing to achieve the goal it set for itself.

"A love relationship with God, with one's Master, is the key element in this business; rigour and perseverance are useful, but they must be supported by this essential element to one's evolution.

"There comes a moment when hearts that are on the right track and having made good progress thanks to assiduous practice, must rely completely on this climbing, in the conquest of divine love. It is able to fill the gaps, to enrich a heart to the highest extent through its sole devotion to it in utmost surrender.

"Loving is a distinguished grace, which answers the call of a soul thirsty for its God. Loving like that is the best thing that can happen to it. It understands where the important thing is; it can tell the difference between the temporary situation of an incarnation and the divine goal which it longs to reach.

"May all souls reach this point and carry on their search of the Absolute, carried by this sublime and divine essence."
