Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, January 7, 2003 - 8:00 a.m.

Your heart must open up completely; nothing can stop it in its motion. It is the tool of the Divine and, as such, it is available and surrendered to its action. We revert to the same words indefinitely, but over time they do not produce the same echo in you any more, hence the need for repetitions in our work.

"The same will be true for our brothers and sisters who may actually want to consider these writings. For them too, doors are opening; their perseverance in effort, combined with their Master's work, is such that they are no longer exactly the same. They do not really realise it, it is normal; the human being cannot easily assess this kind of progress. He is enthusiastic about the idea of performance achieved in a different area altogether, because it is measurable, which is not the case here where evaluation criteria are beyond comprehension. Through observation, some reference points are revealed about the way to approach life, its tests and various events. He feels within the dawning of a sense of wisdom, which reassures him; the more he advances, the more he feels small in the face of the divine omnipotence. He knows his limits more and more; he accepts them, grateful for becoming aware of them and receiving graces that open his mind at every level.

"While evolving spiritually, his life takes on another meaning; he looks further ahead, higher; his eyes open and he is happy with the progress made. He is henceforth motivated and more determined than ever to carry on his search, with an impulse which nothing will manage to slow down."
