Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, January 7, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, you know how much you are precious to my heart; we have already come a very long way together. You entrusted your heart to my care and it is being shaped by meeting my wishes. By turning more and more towards your Master, you provide me joy and you find it also in these contacts which have become a ritual in your lives. You converge in the celebration of love; you look in the same direction by supporting each other in your choices.

"Follow your Master; you henceforth fully recognise him as such. His stature is impressive, believe me. He carries you on a way which will allow you to rejoin me more quickly, in an 'elsewhere' which you cannot currently figure out, but where you will have all leeway to serve as per your longing.

"Our bonds are indefectible; do not forget it. Remain confident and accept life as it is. It allows your destiny to be fulfilled. Be thankful for everything you receive; your path is out of the ordinary, fraught with difficulties, yet fragrant with subtle scents emanating from it.

"Be blessed, my daughter, and continue to serve us so very heartily, as long as you can."

Babuji

The Medium: "Babuji, Beloved Father, there are loves in my life, including very big love for my Master, but my love for you is the quintessence, the indescribable and the unique, everything which my heart, in its extreme smallness, is capable of offering to you. It loves you above all, which my Master can only approve."
