Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Friday, January 17, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, you have suffered, you have learned, made mistakes and progressed; in all this, there is nothing rare in your life. What has developed in your heart is more rare. In you a privileged space has developed where your spiritual life has taken over. This process is accessible to all; but they still have to be willing.

"When the moment has come for a soul to open up to transcendence, nothing can stop it. The incarnate being can be somewhat rushed, but it must understand that this reality, which is obvious to his mind, cannot be circumvented. An appeal of this nature can be suddenly felt and destabilise him or her who benefits from it. Thus starts a long process which can take various forms, until the encounter with the Master who will change the heart of the aspirant altogether, if he is ready for this great mystical adventure. The human being sometimes has difficulties in following the aspirations of his soul; they push him in a direction that he did not think he would be following.

"As for the privileged people, they are born with this prospect; since their youth, they can feel the call and be prepared for their higher destiny. The path of each one is all set; no one can escape it. Sooner or later what is planned will happen; it is better to devote oneself to it willingly. If you read these messages with attention in order to seize their true meaning, we are very trustful as to the results of your process."
