Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Sunday, March 16, 2003 - 8:00 a.m.

Yes indeed, we are listening. Your calls, you know, are always heard. We cannot satisfy your wishes, such is your path; its broad outline cannot be changed.

"Isn't your heart happy in these contacts where you find us? Who, among our candidates, can live similar moments? Your role is rather special; being the appointed scribe of your Beloved requires certain rigour in one's way of life. Although you suffer from it, your isolation makes our rather special relationship easier. This compensation makes your heart happy, and your Master and your divine guide as you also call him, are both the beacons of your life. It is by going deeper and deeper inside, that you can find your spiritual food; your true joys come from there. Your dreams of nature and fresh air would not be enough; they would be ephemeral. You have already come a long way in this life. What remains to be done is only centred on what binds you to us. We take account of it and we try to strengthen you in your faith.

"Yes, today again we are only speaking to you, but with a bit of wisdom. Those who will read these messages can see beyond that and some aspects will strike a chord with them. They are all alike, in terms of having a heart, which sooner or later opens up to the Divine more or less fervently, but which inexorably will reach the same goal."

Babuji