Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, April 28, 1999 – 8:00 a.m.

We have almost reached this day you are all waiting for.

What more to say? The preparation has been carried out well. All is looking good.

We would love to see our associates happy, savouring to the full these moments of grace.

It will, for all of you, be a step forward. Your hearts will retain the imprint of this moment; some kind of mark will be left on them.

We will no longer be unable to recognize you. You will be in 'our camp', in our wake.

A moment such as this will not be forgotten. It will remain forever engraved in the book of time.

The divine blessing will manifest in all its splendour.

Continue to prepare yourselves.

Babuji