My daughter, think about those who suffer and cry, because of the hatred and the pride of beings who generate evil without considering the resulting destruction at all levels; they are led by self interest more than anything else. A war is always one war too many, and especially this one.

"Sahaj Marg can, in the various countries where it is established, bring some points of light into the darkness of ignorance as it prevails on this Earth. A large majority of men live on negative thoughts put forward by unscrupulous beings serving only their own interests. We can only work with a vision of a new era, bringing real changes on this Earth. Our brothers and sisters should focus toward reaching this objective, by surmounting in spirit the heinous conflicts, so as to visualize only a better world, entirely directed to the Divine and advancing towards its liberation.

"Our way is an effective means in this respect. It gives to man the inner strength and equilibrium, particularly in these times disturbed for many reasons, whereby it is not easy to keep a right reasoning, amidst all these upheavals. The heart must keep its own neutrality and serve its true cause, which on no account it should be diverted from."
