As you know, time is an Earthly concept. This daylight time modification does not affect our conventions at all and it will not prevent this contact.

"We make the best of rules that govern your world and of its life customs, which, to us, are mere details! The Earth lives at its own pace. Men have established their own rules according to all resulting elements and events. Our contacts take place at another level, far from all sorts of complications. You have this faculty, not much developed in men, to get out of your physical body and to hear us in the framework of this work, which you excel in. Everyone has his or her capabilities, my daughter, which should be accepted thankfully, as you do concerning what is granted to you.

"Each incarnation offers to human beings the means that enable them to find fulfilment under suitable circumstances. It's up to everyone, from where they are and with their parameters to find their own way and take advantage of that asset.

"Meeting one's Master in one's life is an infinite grace that should not be overlooked, as it may not occur again so soon. Our faithful candidates made a choice: they are accompanied under the best conditions in a search that will lead them towards the goal.

"May they be stronger in their progress and be blessed."
