Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, April 9, 2003 - 10:15 a.m.

Do not feel so threatened. Step back as far as possible regarding your current problems. Turn your attention away from the darkness of the world and focus it on the divine splendour. It is man's only recourse when he experiences difficulties as a result of hatred, insincerity and hypocrisy. Keep your cool, my daughter; time always irons out these kinds of vile actions.

"This world is constantly in a fever of excitement, as we already indicated. Man's base instincts are recurrent, only the subtle vibration of love can save him. May it, one day, break through the tough opacity of all sorts of evil. A tremendous amount of work remains to be done; humanity is bogged down in this jumble of negative elements from which it is not easy to free oneself.

"Many points of light are trying to light up this dark world. They represent hope at the dawn of the new era which is taking shape, and during which an unprecedented change is expected to occur. What is at stake is worth it, and once it has been attempted, only God, in His great mercy, can make it succeed.

"Our way is a positive element in this massive project. Let us remain trustful and committed, so that this world can really change and gain a better status and rise on the planetary scale of values."
