Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Tuesday, April 22, 2003 - 9:30 a.m.

The richness of your inner life is worth any travel. Do you believe that all those who crowd onto the roads on days of mass departures are happier than you? Both can be compatible. As far as you are concerned, a day will come when you will understand its hidden meaning.

"Let the divine source, which you tap into with delight, reinvigorate you. Your moments of loneliness and insulation make you discover treasures that are not in museums. Isn't your heart happy in these contacts which you would not change for anything?

"My dear daughter, that is how your way is. It differs from your fellows' way in some respects, but do not forget that you are privileged in terms of the graces which you receive.

"Each one has the way suited to their evolution, to the role they must play. It is an episode of their history that cannot resemble that of their fellow creatures. Each life has its own characteristics. It is unique; no life can be compared with another one. This greatest diversity is peculiar to the created world, whose richness is amazing. Man has not yet discovered it all. His investigations are limited to his knowledge. He is not necessarily moving in the right direction, but he is trying to understand which powerful force animates the particles of life. He has yet to discover the main things, which are currently beyond his capabilities. The secret of life is and will remain the secret of God."
