Whispers from The Brighter World

A Fourth Revelation

Saturday, April 26, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

our previous lives do not matter, my child. They built your soul, but that which is important is ahead of you: your acceptance of what is happening today and which leads you to a future that meets the aspirations the soul may have. Each reincarnation has its own importance; it makes it possible to store up treasures that enrich one's personality. No matter whether one is poor or rich, ignorant or erudite, the true richness, as you know, is beyond these concepts.Your heart is armed with an asset that has come down through the ages and has led you to the current state where divine love precedes everything.

"It is quite a long way that makes it possible for the soul to emerge towards the light. The journey is often difficult, but it is enough to raise one's head and to see only the beauty of creation that leads human beings to praise their Creator with a song, which only their heart can understand and repeat endlessly.

"The soul enjoys remaining immersed in this ocean of grace in which it is delighted. By developing in oneself this faculty of loving, praising God and consequently one's Master, the keys of life can open the most secret doors in the dazzled soul.

"It is a natural process which is achieved with time – devotion and love always achieving their ends. Love, love, such is our advice on this day when our scribe is soaring with happiness, yet writing these lines, which perhaps will find an echo in hearts and reveal an aptitude that has been veiled until now."
