Prepare your heart for this anniversary which you are longing to celebrate in you. You are not with your Master, as you so wish to be. Do not feel sad. Though behind the scenes, your place does not exclude you from the great sacred feast, which my son is chairing for the occasion.

"He orchestrates these celebrations, with all the great panache he is capable of and you will be at the core of this great movement where love is in the first place. We have largely talked about the importance of these gatherings where hearts are as one offering to the Divine. A specific force emanates from these days, which man cannot assess. As any participants, he benefits from it, but this fact goes well beyond by developing our Mission egregore. These days, which bring our brothers closer through the same surge of heart, have an incomparable positive impact.

"Whatever your possibilities, the fact of being united in spirit contributes to this large movement preparing the bright future of our way. Try to devote a day, at the very least a few hours, to join through the heart your brothers and sisters, in this anniversary day of an important step in the history of Sahaj Marg. These remembrance days are important benchmarks that will remain in the memory of our candidates of the future, the custodians of the first steps that would lead this spiritual way to its future level.

"May my chosen son give to this celebration, which he does so well, the spirit which summarizes these remarks and which is suited to this time."
