Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Wednesday, April 30, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, you see where all these years of fidelity to the Master's heart have led to! The heart knows no limit; love can expand within it in its own way and become its most beautiful achievement.

"We are particularly in spirit with our brothers and sisters from the whole world on this day of remembrance. My son is literally full of my presence; this exceptional love shared by our hearts is at its height in these moments of devotion raised by such gatherings. Powerful forces are mobilised, reinforcing the spirit of Sahaj Marg, vibrating in attentive hearts that are grateful for what they are specially given.

"During these special days, the Masters' hearts are united and form only One heart divinely inspired for the good of men, many of whom hopelessly turn to this light that they call with all their might. This appeal for the divine is growing. Many hearts are seeking their way; they are hungry for and conscious of what is needed for their development. They feel that a significant part of themselves escapes them, as they have not yet found the access to it.

"On this day of grace, may countless souls be favourably inspired to find their way to the source that will be able to quench their thirst. Our blessings are addressed to each and every one of our brothers."
