Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, May 8, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

Your being here or elsewhere does not matter, you are doing what is close to your heart, isn't it the most important thing? For the moment, you must be satisfied with it. Didn't you say a long time ago: 'Country or fatherland I have none, my fatherland is the universe...and God over all!'

"Your universe is in you and around you, within the limits of your room where each day you note with love what we inspire in you. Be happy to take part in this great feast to which we invite you. My son also communicates with you in his own way. Sahaj Marg is a big family of souls, and as all families get larger with time, this fills us with joy.

"What you are experiencing, others will experience. By reading these messages they may find comfort in identifying themselves with this person so often put forward as the central point of these messages. The human condition is trying – each one must fight to live and sometimes survive under extremely difficult conditions in some countries where misery is so great that you cannot imagine it.

"Some images move you for a moment, and then you move on to another thing, that is to your daily life and its associated joys and sorrows, which are the lot of everyone. May all souls be united one day in a big circle, carried by an impetus of enthusiastic love clearing their way to the heavens! Blessings to all."
