Whispers from The Brighter World
A Fourth Revelation

Thursday, June 5, 2003 - 10:00 a.m.

You are a good medium; this does not need to be proved since these writings speak for themselves. You must complete what we are expecting from you, without always wondering whether you should continue to take down these messages. You have surrendered, therefore leave it to us and keep on serving us in your usual way. Many hearts will benefit from their substance and will find answers in these turns of phrases, so simple yet helpful, and hence very interesting for them. The world is heading towards very trying times and many desperate souls will clutch at the hope of a different life, one providing higher spiritual prospects. We cannot at this stage reveal anything as sensational as favoured by human curiosity. Here and there we cautiously put forward some comments. A truth hidden from men for such a long time cannot be assimilated so easily.

"Let us progress cautiously and prepare the spirits. Our brothers and sisters are following us with confidence. We must help them admit to a reality that sooner or later may be revealed to them bluntly.

"A spiritual work well accomplished is the best way to prepare oneself. We provide them with a teaching and a practice aimed at helping them as much as possible to grow and move up towards the Divine, towards concepts that they cannot yet understand but which have already touched them deeply."
